Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Directors are reached out to individually at the start of every year to update and sign the Conflict of Interest form and reminded of their duty to disclose potential conflicts. Any Director who states a potential conflict is given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of any potential or perceived conflicts of interest and all material facts, and after discussion with the interested person, the Executive Committee determines whether a potential or perceived conflict of interest exists. If they determine there is a potential or perceived conflict of interest then the Executive Committee then discloses to the Board the potential or perceived conflict of interest. Procedures for addressing any conflicts are within our Conflicts of Interest Policy.

The minutes of a Board meeting in which a conflicted person(s) is present, the minutes contain the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have an interest in connection with an actual, potential, or perceived conflict of interest, the nature of the interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Executive Committee's or Board's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed. In addition, minutes include the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection therewith.
